DID YOU KNOW?

- Over 1.5 billion people in 118 countries speak English
- Studies suggest employees who have better english speaking skills can earn up to 30% higher salary than those who struggle to express themselves in English
- The EDUCATION FIRST survey ranked India 14th out of 54 countries under the English proficiency index, and it puts India under the “moderate category”
- QUALITY OF ENGLISH - The school-level english teaching is found to be not competent enough to compete globally. A survey report conducted on 55000 students, in 2021, suggested that not even 3% were employable directly without further training by IT companies and out of these, 78% struggle with English language
- It is IMPOSSIBLE to improve the level of English without addressing the low quality of English learning at schools
- The low quality of English language teaching in schools is creating a huge gap between academic teaching and employability
