The TOEFL is a standardized test designed to measure the English language proficiency of non-native English speakers who want to study at English-speaking universities or work in academic or professional settings.

Test Format Features

- Adaptive Reading & Listening: The test adjusts difficulty as you go, showing harder or easier questions based on your answers.
- New Content: Includes more modern, accessible topics reflecting real academic situations like group discussions.
- Faster Results: Scores available in as little as 72 hours.

Overall Score

From January 2026, the TOEFL iBT will switch to a 1-6 scoring scale (with half points) for each section and overall, in line with CEFR. The old 0-120 score will remain available for two years for comparison.
